

Leader's Notes

WEEK 3 Authenticity

- 1) Go around and allow those in your group to share. Remember, there is no right or wrong answer for this question.
- 2) This is a personal question. Be sensitive to others' answers and remember to model transparency.
- 3) Go around and allow those in your group to share. Remember, there is no right or wrong answer for this question.
- 4) Some dangers are: traditions in and of themselves are not necessarily bad as long as they do not supersede God's law. We have to be careful not to allow traditions to dictate God's commandments.
- 5) They may have felt threatened by the following they created and wanted to prove to others that they indeed were false teachers.
- 6) Go around and share.
- 7) Go around and share.
- 8) As the leader, you may have to share first to continue the model of transparency.
- 9) Go around and share.
